CRITERION VI – GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 – Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 – Mention two practices of decentralization and participative management during the last year (maximum 500 words)

MLSU Udaipur has a democratic system where all the stakeholders have been given representation in different bodies and committees of the university. Decision making in the university is done collectively in which Deans, HODs and faculty members are given proper say to contribute to the decision making. Faculty members are given representation in various statutory bodies of the university such as Departmental Committee, Committee of Courses, Board of Studies, Meetings of the concerned faculties, Departmental Research Committees etc. For smooth management of the university various committees are formed by the Vice Chancellor in which cross-section of faculty members from different departments and disciplines are given due representation. Such an approach brings in multifarious views and after a healthy discussion most of the decisions are taken unanimously. 1. Research activities It can be seen in implementing UGC Regulations about reforms in research. University Grants Commission, New Delhi framed UGC Regulations about M.Phill and Ph.D. Programme in the year 2009which has been subsequently revised many a times. The Dean PG Studies (equivalent to Director- Research) of the University was given responsibility for implementation of the same. An advisory committee consisting of senior academicians was constituted and the University got the distinction of being the first university in the state of Rajasthan to implement new Ph.D Regulations of UGC. Since the University is located in the Tribal Sub Plan Region (TSP) of Southern Rajasthan, it was decided to encourage tribal boys and girls for enrolling in the M.Phill Ph.D Programmes of the University. For achieving this pious objective super-numeral seats to the extent of 10 of the total seats were ear-marked for them and senior faculty members of the department were given the responsibility of mentoring and guiding these research scholars. The University has successfully completed many cycles of admission process and is having at present a total of 920 Ph.D research scholars on its roll. 2. Independent units handling student issues- Grievance Redressal System:- The University has taken special care for redressing the grievances of staff and students in general and women in particular. Following is the mechanism : Anti Ragging Cell: Each department is having an anti-ragging cell which keeps strict vigil over any ragging related activities. The committee makes use of CCTV Footage and also arranges to display posters to dissuade students from indulging in ragging. Anti Sexual Harrassment Cell: Special cell has been created to check menace of sexual harassment and violence against women. Grievance Redressal Committee (Exams Related) : A committee consisting of all the faculty chairmen and a nominee of the Vice Chancellor has been constituted to look into the grievances of the students and decide about Unfair Means cases. COE is the member secretary of the committee which meets regularly, at least once a month and awards bonus marks in case of the genuine grievances of the students.

6.1.2 – Does the institution have a Management Information System (MIS)?

Yes

6.2 – Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 – Quality improvement strategies adopted by the institution for each of the following (with in 100 words each):

Strategy Type	Details
Curriculum Development	The curricula developed and adopted by the University are designed in a manner to provide an exposure to students with the past, present and future-expected global and Indian scenario. The existing curricula are outcome-oriented and need- based keeping in mind local, national, regional and global perspective. The curriculum combines academic knowledge, social skills, soft skills, personality development, moral and ethical values which leads to both intellectual and behavioral development of the students. Each of the courses has targeted and clearly stated outcomes which focus on in depth knowledge of the discipline and instill professional and academic proficiencies. The programmes on Geology, Remote Sensing, IPR, Taxation, E-commerce, Finance, Computer and ICT, Biotechnology are of global as well as national importance.

Teaching and Learning	The learning potential of the student is assessed by the mentors through personal interaction, during classroom teaching, classroom presentation, internal assessments/tests etc. The mentors critically review and analyse the academic strength and weakness of the students especially in terms of their learning abilities and language barrier. Demarcating the advanced and slow learners helps the mentors to adopt mechanisms which would foster the needs of all in totality. Mentors maintain an unbiased environment and incorporate strategic learning mechanisms for providing equal opportunities to all the mentees.
Examination and Evaluation	Mohanlal Sukhadia University has been a pioneer in implementing examination reforms in this region. In 1998 University adopted a barcode and sticker based system to minimize manual intervention in result preparation. An integrated ERP system has been established under the aegis of ITI New Delhi, a govt. of India undertaking and has been named as Integrated University Management System (IUMS). This ERP has lead to an almost paperless system integrating all affiliated and constituent colleges of the University. The entire student information is maintained through a centralized database leading to consistency and integrity of data. Separate window has been provided to various stakeholders for continuous updation of student performance and a wide range of report options are provided to provide an effective MIS. The Examination and Secrecy departments have been successful in establishing in-house facilities for barcoding, scanning, result preparation and declaration. University has been able to continuously reduce the time between the conduct of last exam and declaration of result.
Research and Development	The university is laser-focussed on research promotion. The campus provides an atmosphere that is conducive to research. The faculty all over are updated and constantly striving to conduct good research. Plenty of research projects are taken up regularly and the faculty actively involve the students to give them proper exposure. Also, regular workshops take place to provide latest developments in the field of research methodology. A yearly research workshop is ritually conducted by the student representatives for their colleagues. MLSU has good research infrastructural facilities at par with many national organizations which is justified by the financial assistance provided by various funding agencies like DST, UGC, ICSSR, ISRO and RUSA. Many departments are equipped with hi-tech instruments of utmost importance which help to raise the level of research.
Library, ICT and Physical Infrastructure / Instrumentation	State-of-the-art facilities like Central Library, Central Instrumental Laboratories (in different departments), Geological Museum, Drug Museum, Animal House etc., add an extra assistance for research and innovation. For visually impaired persons, the library at University College of Science has established a well equipped "Drishti" corner where literature can be accessed through audio and Braille. The University e-library has subscribed to about 8000 online journal, 200 e-books and facilitated with OPAC. Intranet and WiFi facilities installed in the University have a tremendous impact in accelerating research output. University is available on maximum portals of academic importance, and being an active member of INFLIBNET and DELNET, numerous information resources are available to cater to the need of researchers. University is well equipped with ICT tools and enriched with IT resources. All the constituent colleges are having smart classrooms equipped with LCD projector and smart screens as well as attached computer facilities. LAN and wifi facilities are also available in the buildings. Staff has access to the ICT facilities with the availability of internet ready desktops and laptops. Students have access to internet facilities which are available in the computer labs and libraries. Scanners, printers, reprographers are also installed in various departments. Audio-visual facilities and television are also available with some departments. The University has made efforts to keep abreast with the latest technologies available and upgrade its ICT facilities.
Human Resource Management	the university understands the potential of its student power and therefore the students are involved in activities which benefit their campus, their academics and also make them self reliant. All out-reach programs are conducted by giving the management reins in the hands of the students. They are encouraged for drives like cleaning the campus, plantation of trees, helping the community around the campus. Students also involve in cultural practices with faculty. Often, the students of senior batch provide guidance to the students of junior batches creating a holistic and participative environment.
Industry Interaction / Collaboration	The university ensures that the students are not limited to theory alone and in order to give them an exposure to the outside working space, the different cells in the university arrange for tours to various industries. The placement cell invites leading corporate HR managers to train and prepare the students for their future jobs. Students are taken for factory tours to acclimatize them with the wok environment. Students regularly participate in internships, job training, research projects etc. Industry experts are called to weigh in their opinions about curriculum framework that can ensure that students are aware and well prepared for contemporary demands of the market.
Admission of Students	Students are the paramount of an institution and the true success of an institution revolves around the holistic development of its students. The University has a transparent and online system of admission accepting all students despite of their differential learning abilities. Admission in maximum of the PG courses is through entrance exam. Beginning of the academic session is marked with conduction of induction/ orientation programme at Department and College level for the students to acquaint them with their new niche, mentors, course outcomes, curriculum resources, examination patterns, learning strategies and teaching process.

6.2.2 – Implementation of e-governance in areas of operations:

1. ADOPTION OF VILLAGES-The University has adopted two villages in the vicinity assisted by NSS Unit of the University, a group of students and staff members regularly visit these villages to bring about qualitative improvement in their standard of living. As the university is surrounded by various ethnis tribes, the university takes special pride in this uniqueness which makes us different from other universitis. We recognize the enormous potential among tribal students and we are working tirelessly to tap this wonderful source to the best of our abilities. The efforts undertaken shall bear fruits in near future. The intention is to preserve the ethnic legacy of these villages yet ensuing their development for a better standard of living. Action Plan: Many workshops on computer literacy, sewing and other low investment entrepreneurship projects are regularly conducted. 2. YOG-AROGYA CENTRE-MLSU Arogya center was established with the vision to provide a platform to experience peace, calm, stability and joy by uniting with ones inner self. The center is a spiritual boon for those seeking rejuvenation from the hustle bustle of regular life. The coordinator of the center prof Neeraj of Sanskrit department is not only an expert on the spiritual teachings of Indian scriptures but he himself is a bundle of energy which is contagious and magnetic. His persona has motivated many people both from within the university and outside to engage in these liberating exercises for the soul. Our honourable ex vice chancellor prof JP Sharma was also a regular visitor of the center which in itself promoted more and more members to experience the bliss of meditation, Yog and divine experiences. The centre is the pride of the university as many elderly from Udaipur city have regularly sought spiritual training under the aegis of prof Neeraj. The university boasts a sense of fulfillment by this initiative of prof Neeraj as it has transformed the lives of many citizens of the UDAIPUR city.

NRC BIO-TECH- The university has become a front-runner in the digital India mission of the government. MLSU has been recognised as one of the 75 centers for discipline specific National Resource Centers, an initiative by MHRD, govt of India. This accolade has come to the Bio tech department under the guidance of Prof. Rajesh Dubey. The aim is to serve millions of higher education faculties, academicians, research scholars, entrepreneurs across the country by providing education through this new age technical platform facilitating easy access to education and overcoming barriers to learning due to several indigenous factors like distance, high-costs, time constraints etc. The focus will be on professional, pedagogical and entrepreneurship based programs which will tackle the problem of skill shortage, choice-based career graphs and much more via SWAYAM and MOOCs.

8. Future Plans of Actions for Next Academic Year

The university looks toward completing and sustaining its efforts in development of its tribal population. The cornerstone has been the policy of adoption of villages but there is no way that it can be carried out without continuous involvement of students. The idea behind the adoption of these villages is not only the improved standard of living for the rural people but the aim is to sensitize the students towards community building. The whole idea of education is incomplete without its due applications in society and it cannot be achieved until students are actively engaged in thrust areas. Not only will the students get involved but with mentor-mentee policy the university seeks to create a tradition of community help among students so that they can pass on their legacy of knowledge of rural issues and commitment towards solving these issues to the coming student generations. This will ensure a holistic development which has always been the integral value of MLSU. More and more efforts shall be taken for plantation, cleanliness, a more sophisticated garbage disposal system, and the university strives to become paper-free in the near future by more efficient technical databases. The university also understands the need to incorporate more elements of ease for 'divyangjan' so that no one is left behind in the overall educational vision. The NRC in bio tech department shall expand and more faculty will be encouraged to come out with innovative ideas in the field of technical education. The number of MOOCs is also expected to grow exponentially and the NRC will go aboard in a full fledged form. The university expects that its teaching staff, will strive towards higher avenues in the field of research. The university expects more and more projects to be taken up especially in alliance with other premier institutes so that there is exposure and trans-disciplinary positive outcomes. The university will pay more attention to strengthen its alumni base and organise regular programs though which the currently enrolled students can benefit from the wisdom of the alumni and gain inspiration from them. The alumni shall also be made to involve more actively in the activities of their Alma-mater so that their success in respective field can bring back returns to the university as well. This will be achieved by creating a richer database of the alumni and the university also plans to create a specific cell for this purpose which can be effectively run by the guidance of seniors faculty members in collaboration with student representatives. the university is for its students and more activities shall be undertaken to ensure their involvement. In this line, the university plans to increase its number of social-awareness programs which will be organised with students at its management center. The university understands the need for adopting digital means of learning so it plans to ensure that not a single student is left behind in registration to NATIONAL DIGITAL LIBRARY.
